Café Iguana Slithers into Greenwood

Singapore, 20 January 2009 – Café Iguana opens in Greenwood Avenue today, bringing its unique Mexican vibrancy to the neighborhood.

The ever popular Mexican cantina has transformed the space formerly occupied by Sebastian's into a rustic 116-seater haven for fresh Mexican food and delectable margaritas.

Designed in-house to be a spinoff from the original Café Iguana, the 2325 square feet space is a delightful interplay of funky colored chairs, strong geometric lines, sophisticated dark woods and intriguing artwork. With an audacious color palette of yellow, red, blue and green, patrons can look forward to the same fun, laid-back atmosphere that is uniquely Café Iguana.

Several design features stand out from the rest: a cheeky "Iguana" wall fountain in the quaint alfresco courtyard, "Lalo" the lion sculpture commissioned for charity and stunning art pieces from Willy Baet.

"The MENU Group is really excited about opening our second Café Iguana. For years our Riverside Point location has been an incredibly popular destination but this Greenwood site is the first place we've seen that really seems to lend itself to the vibrant and colorful Iguana experience," says Devin Otto Kimble, Managing Director, MENU Pte. Ltd. Food & Drinks Group

Like its sister outlet at Riverside Point, Café Iguana Greenwood works on the same formula of fresh, scrumptious Mexican fare, accompanied by delicious margaritas and personable service.

The Cuisine

The new Café Iguana offers a delectable Tex-Mex menu, which includes signature dishes such as Camarones al Diablo, Green Chile Stew and Ancho Chile Chocolate Cake.

The restaurant prides itself in providing high quality and authentic ingredients. Ensuring that patrons only savor the best and the freshest, many condiments and ingredients, i.e. tortilla, salsa, guacamole, are made from scratch everyday.

The Drinks List

In addition to scrumptious Mexican fare, Café Iguana specializes in Mexico's most famous beverage, tequila. The bar houses over 100 different labels of 100% blue agave available, making its collection of tequilas one of Asia's biggest selections.

Other than tequilas, Café Iguana patrons can look forward to discounted margaritas (from opening till 9pm) and fresh beer from Brewerkz (including the Iguana Lager, exclusive to Café Iguana).

Café Iguana is a concept created, owned and operated by MENU Pte. Ltd. Food & Drinks Group, parent company of Brewerkz Restaurants & Microbreweries, Café Iguana, WineGarage and MENU Catering.

About Café Iguana

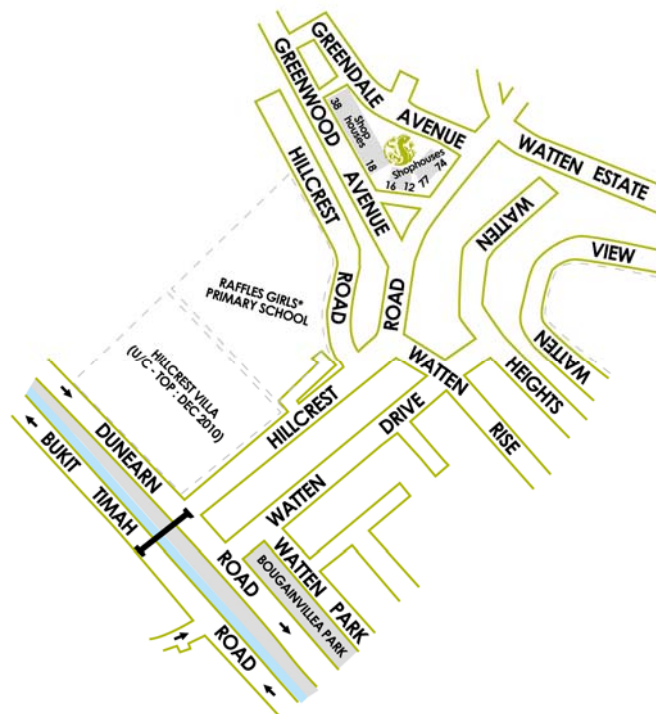

Opened in July 2000, Café Iguana is one of Singapore's favorite Mexican restaurants and bars. The restaurant prides itself on providing the freshest ingredients and one of Asia's largest selections of tequilas. After the success of its flagship outlet at Riverside Point, Café Iguana has opened a second outlet at Greenwood Avenue and is likely to expand to more locations.

About MENU

Originally called Brewerkz Singapore Pte Ltd, the group was founded by US-born Devin Otto Kimble and Chilean Daniel E. Flores who opened Brewerkz Restaurant & Microbrewery in 1997. The new name "MENU" is intended to reflect that the company has grown from being a single concept to an operation that currently includes Brewerkz Restaurant & Microbrewery, Café Iguana and WineGarage.
